CROPS ARE BIG IN PONTOTOC COUNTY

COTTON FIELDS EVEN BETTER THAN AVERAGE—BUMPER CORN CROP ALREADY SURE THING.

Unless something yet unforeseen occurs, Pontotoc County farmers will reap the greatest harvest this fall ever seen here. The corn crop is made, there being a much larger than an average crop. The rains of the past week have put new life in the cotton and peanuts and hay and pasture crops, with the result that the fields are looking better than ever before for this season of the year.

Reports from all parts of the county are encouraging. No reports of the boll weevil have come to the county seat, and little has been heard of the weed's shedding. The weed is not too large, and so far is unusually well fruited. It is thought that many fields will average from three-fourths to a bale to the acre.

Pontotoc county in ordinary years markets approximately 30,000 bales of cotton. In 1917 this crop brought in about $5,000,000. It is thought now that the 1919 crop will exceed this by a good margin.

FARM CONGRESS TO BE HELD AT STILLWATER

By the Associated Press
STILLWATER, Okla., Aug. 24.—Beginning today with community and rural church day the seventh annual farm congress to be held at the Oklahoma A. & M. college will last throughout this week to Saturday, August 28th.

In order to make this year's farm congress more interesting a great many features have been arranged that visitors may have amusement "while going to school." A number of airplanes from Post field, Fort Sill, will be at the college during the week and will furnish thrills.

The general theme of the farm congress this year will be "organization." Organization of farms for more intensive production; organization of farms for safe farming; community organization and church organization.

President J. A. Whitehurst of the state board of agriculture has put the matter of having President Wilson at this year's congress up to the Oklahoma delegation at Washington. In the event President Wilson attends one day of the week's program will be set aside.

Methodist Baptizing.

Last Sunday morning the pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by his father, administered the ordinance of baptism to a dozen young ladies. This makes a few more than a hundred who have received baptism at our hands during the past few weeks, and the total number received during our pastorate runs slightly over four hundred. We fully expect during the remaining two months of the conference year to make the number five hundred. Next Sunday morning and every Sunday we will receive members. Let all Methodists take notice and present themselves for membership. We do not want people of other faiths.

Wallace M. Crutchfield, Pastor.

AMERICA GETS COLD FEET AGAIN

BACKS OUT OF MEXICO AFTER KILLING BANDIT WHOM THEY "THINK" WAS LEADER.

By the Associated Press

MARFA, Tex., Aug. 25.—Major James R. Yancey, commander of the American punitive expedition, told the associated press over army field telephone at Ruidosa today that he considered authentic the report that Jasus Renteria, bandit leader, had been shot and killed from an American airplane last Tuesday. All of the Eighth cavalry was back on the American side today, having given up the chase yesterday.

MANY JOIN RAILWAY STRIKE AT LOS ANGELES.

By the Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 25.—A large number of three thousand, one hundred and ten men employed in the Southern Pacific shops here joined the strike of train men today and started a parade through the business district of the city. Railroad officials said they could not estimate until late this afternoon how many men had joined the walk-out. The number was expected to be large, however.

Immigration Committee of the House Prepares Most Drastic Bill Ever

MAJ. GEN. J. W. McANDREW

Maj. Gen. James W. McAndrew, former chief of staff of the A. E. F., has returned to Washington as president of the Army War college. The name of the institution will hereafter be the General Staff college, and it will be kept separate from the war plans division.

Oklahoma A & M Looks Forward to Big Football Year

FOUR NATIONS TO BE DOMINANT IN CHINA

By the Associated Press

TOKIO, Japan, Aug. 25.—It is reported that at its meeting Thursday the Japanese imperial cabinet, upholding the opinions advanced by military element in the government, has decided to insist upon the exclusion of Manchuria and Mongolia from consortium by which the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan will assume the dominant position in the finances of China. It is said that negotiations will be resumed with the entente powers on that basis. It is said that the military leaders fear to jeopardize the special political interests in Manchuria and Mongolia.

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—A new method of dealing with the incoming alien problem is embodied in a bill being prepared by the House Immigration Committee. It is regarded as the most drastic measure of the kind ever presented to congress.

Adoption of the bill would mean, its framers say, literal fulfillment of the so-called "gentlemen's agreement" between the United States and Japan with respect to immigration and would keep out Japanese coolies.

Under the Root-Tokihara agreement, Japan is obligated to send no coolies to this country, but it charged the records disclose that they arrive by the thousands, with passports as merchants, students, and the like. Once here it is alleged, they remain, send for "picture brides," raise families and their children become citizens of the United States by right of birth.

Representative Albert Johnson, of Hoquiam, Wash., chairman of the House Immigration Committee in charge of the preparation of the bill says the requirement that aliens landing at American ports must have passports with a time limit will break up the great inflow of foreigners. The bill provides that aliens coming within exemption clauses of the present law must obtain passports from their own governments, advised by consular agents of the United States, and limited as to time.

But the bill does not stop there. Aliens, who under present laws are eligible to citizenship, would be permitted to come to the United States without passports providing that they intend to reside here and become citizens. They must agree to register at least once a year, failure to do so being a cause for deportation. Failure to take out first papers at the end of two years' residence also is cause for deportation.

After taking out papers, aliens must remain here five years for final citizenship, with a time allowance off for knowledge of the elements of the American plan of government and proficiency in the English language. If an alien does not require citizenship in eight years he is sent home.

The committee hopes to provide a plan by which citizens of contiguous territory, Canada and Mexico, may visit the United States on cards issued annually.

Chairman Johnson is trying to have congress send a special committee comprising Eastern and Middle west members to the Pacific coast to study the Japanese situation. "We want the East to study it," he said.

"Immigrants now come to the United States freely and are required to pass mental and physical tests," Chairman Johnson said, explaining his bill. "Many classes, such as lawyers, teachers, students, merchants and actors, are exempted from these tests. These are the class that it is proposed to have come with limited passports. That is to say, they are to come as visitors, and not as prospective citizens. If one comes as a prospective citizen he must so state, and agree in writing to place himself under probation, reporting at stated intervals. That is all there is to it. Visitors are welcome. We have room for desirable immigrants, but must have a guarantee as to their continued desirability and their willingness to acquire not only American citizenship but all that the word Americanism implies."

Members of the committee say it is not likely a bill suspending immigration for any stated period could pass congress now. A year ago it could have passed, they add. There is a demand, according to members, for a provision in the new bill for deportation of aliens who withdraw their first papers in order to avoid service with the armed forces of the United States.

STUDENT INFIRMARY AT STATE UNIVERSITY

By the Associated Press

NORMAN, Okla., Aug. 24.—The University of Oklahoma is shortly to have added to its institution buildings a student infirmary.

Arrangements have been completed whereby the Board of Regents of the university and the state board of public affairs has agreed to taking over the Cleveland General Hospital here to be placed under control of the sanitary committee of the university. All cases of illness among students will be reported to this committee and the infirmary will be available in necessary cases.

REV. BECK GETS CALL TO SEATTLE

WILL ASK CHURCH HERE FOR DISSOLUTION OF PASTORAL RELATIONS IN ORDER TO ACCEPT.

Rev. Geo. W. Beck, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, surprised the board of deacons yesterday when he informed them that he had received a call from another locality which he wished to accept and asked them to make preparations for a meeting of the congregation next Sunday in order that it might be asked to consider a request for dissolution of the pastoral relations.

The call for Rev. Beck comes from the Ravenna Park Methodist Protestant church at Seattle, Wash., the denomination in which Mr. Beck was raised and to which he will now return.

Rev. Beck has been in Ada since Jan. 1st, 1918, coming here from a pastorate at Sweetwater, Texas. He was born in Harrison county, Ohio, is 38 years of age and a graduate of Westminster Theological Seminary at Westminster, Maryland. Rev. Beck's family consists of an accomplished wife and two beautiful little daughters, Hilda, ten years of age, and Helen, two years, all of whom will be greatly missed from church and society circles in the city.

Rev. Beck has been in the ministry for fourteen years, previous to which time he was in commercial pursuits, being a man of exceptional business qualifications as well as a minister whose record is above criticism and whose ability is not surpassed in these parts.

Rev. Beck had active charge of the tabernacle here during the recent Ham-Ramsey religious campaign, and at the close of the meetings the evangelists stated that they had never a more loyal supporter or a harder worker connected with any revival they have ever held in any part of the United States, and they have covered a great deal of territory in the evangelistic work.

We believe every citizen of Ada, regardless of his or her religious affiliations, will regret to learn that Mr. Beck contemplates leaving the city, at the same time he is just such a man as we desire to see succeed in every undertaking, and if he betters himself and makes himself more useful by making the change we shall be glad that he made it.

If Mr. Beck severs his relations with the Ada church, as it is now almost certain that he will, he expects to take up his duties in Seattle on October first.

SPRINGFIELD, MO. SHOP MEN VOTE TO STRIKE.

By the Associated Press

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 23.—The official strike vote of the federated shop crafts on the St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad has been taken and the result forwarded to the general chairman of the various crafts. It was stated that the vote to quit work September 1st unless the wage demands now before Director General Hines are granted by that date was unanimous.

Writer Who Was Intimate With Col. Roosevelt to Write Inside Life Story

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Joseph Bucklin Bishop, for 30 years a personal friend of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, and who, five years before the former president's death, was commissioned by him "to write the history of the period which covered his public career," presents in the September issue of Scribner's Magazine the first of a series of papers which gives for the first time many interesting sidelights on the life of the famous American.

The paper, entitled "Roosevelt—Peacemaker," selected and arranged from the former president's public and private correspondence, amounting to more than 15,000 letters, deals with Mr. Roosevelt's efforts to end the war between Russia and Japan and which resulted in the Portsmouth Peace Conference of 1905.

For the first time, apparently, is revealed the fact that Japan made the initial overtures for peace. Four days after the great Japanese naval victory over Rojstevsky's fleet in the sea of Japan on May 27, 1905, the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Japan, the letters show, called Minister Takahara in Washington to invoke Roosevelt's aid as a mediator.

"I was amused," wrote the President, "by the way in which they asked me to invite the two belligerents together directly on my own motion and initiative. It reminded me of the request for contributions sent by campaign committees to office holders wherein they were asked to make a 'voluntary contribution of ten per cent of their salary.' It showed a certain naivete on the part of the Japanese."

According to his biographer, every step in the negotiations extending over a period of three months, was taken by Mr. Roosevelt without the aid of any of his most trusted counselors. John Hay, his secretary of state being critically ill, Secretary Root having resigned from his cabinet many months earlier, and Secretary Taft being absent in the Philippines.

"One reads the thick volumes of his correspondence with amazement bordering on incredulity," writes Mr. Bishop. "It is incredible that one man could do so much and so well. In no other task of his life was the abnormal energy, mental and physical, of Theodore Roosevelt put to a severer test and from none did he emerge more triumphantly. His activity was as tireless as his resourcefulness was inexhaustible."

The president's activity was directed, he said, to "not only steadily and irresistibly forcing the two warring nations into a conference but bringing other nations like England, France and Germany to the support of his efforts. If Russia balked and showed signs of refusal, he persuaded the Kaiser to bring pressure upon the Czar in the interest of peace. If Japan showed similar signs, England was appealed to, to bring pressure upon her. In the end Germany alone really helped, and Roosevelt gave unstinted praise to the Kaiser ever afterward for what he did then."

In all of this correspondence Colonel wrote "without restraint or reservation." In a confidential letter Secretary Hay he referred to the Kaiser as a "monomaniac" and a "jumpy creature who has had another fit." In another missive he thus characterizes the former emperor of Russia: "The Czar is a preposterous little creature as the absolute autocrat of 150,000,000 people."

Every day, and often several times a day, he urged the Emperors of Russia and Japan to agree upon terms of peace. Once he wrote a friend: "The more I see of the Czar, the Kaiser and the Mikado, the better I am content with democracy, even if we have to include the American newspapers as one of its assets—liability would be a better term."

While the conference was in session, the President had occasional doubts of ultimate success. "I have led the horses to water," he wrote, "but heaven only knows whether they will drink or start kicking one another beside the trough."

When victory crowned his efforts, however, continued Mr. Bishop, he was not elated by it. King Edward of England said of him to the American Ambassador in London: "I am simply lost in admiration for the President; nobody else could have done it." Mr. Roosevelt's own verdict was: "I am overpraised. I am credited with being extremely long-headed. As a matter of fact I took the position I finally did not of my own volition but because events so shaped themselves that I would have felt as if I was flinching from a plain duty if I had acted otherwise."

Woodmen and All Labor Unions to Celebrate Sept. 1

The Woodmen of the World have, for several days, been advertising a big picnic to be held at the big lake southeast of the city on Labor Day, Sept. 1st and also the 2nd.

All kinds of amusements are promised for the occasion, and on Monday morning, Sept. 1st, which is Labor Day, the labor unions of the city will put on a monster parade through the city and to the picnic grounds at the lake.

Labor Day is a holiday throughout the nation and on that day all industrial institutions will close and give the people who work a chance to enjoy themselves and have a day's vacation.

The Woodmen contemplate having many visitors in the city during the picnic and celebration, and they promise all who come a good time.

OKLAHOMA PEACH CROP IS MARKETING.

By the Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug. 24.—The movement to market of Oklahoma's unusually small peach crop will be practically completed today, according to the estimates of the state board of agriculture.

The crop, which has been materially cut down by dry, hot weather in all sections of the state, will amount to approximately 380,000 bushels, as compared with a total movement of 770,000 bushels for 1918. This year's movement has not been much over 800 cars of approximately 400 bushels each, while Logan county, the state's biggest producer in former seasons, will not move over 500 cars. Production in the central part of the state has been reduced one-third.

The condition of the crop August 1 was placed at 75 per cent.

BIG AIRPLANE RACE STARTS AT 12:25 P.M.

By the Associated Press

TORONTO, Ontario, Aug. 25.—The first airplane to start in the international airplane race from Toronto to New York and return left here at twelve twenty-five p. m. today. Seventeen aviators, eleven Americans and six British, were to participate. The contestants include both army and civilian aviators, the latter competing for a ten thousand dollar prize offered by the Hotel Commodore, of New York.

CARRANZA HOLDS TO CONFISCATION

WASHINGTON DISTURBED OVER LEADER'S DISPOSITION TO CONFISCATE PROPERTY OF FOREIGNERS.

By News' Special Service

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Officials here are somewhat disturbed. It was learned today, by an apparent determination on the part of Carranza and his official advisers in Mexico City to confiscate the oil property of all foreigners, including American, in spite of the protests lodged with the Mexican government by all nations whose nationals have investments in Mexico.

Two public declarations by Mexicans close to Carranza have expressed the president's stand on this matter which public opinion, official and unofficial alike, except for the Carranzistas, have declared to be vital. The opinion of all classes in Mexico, as reported in the Mexico City newspapers and transmitted to the state department is, for a prompt and correct settlement of the petroleum question which has been declared to be the key to relations between the United States and Mexico.

Newspapers and citizens especially those of the educated class, according to reports to the state department, urge that because of the recognized danger of intervention, Mexico at least protect foreign investments even if she cannot stop the murder of foreign citizens.

Don Carlos Dufio, the eminent Mexican economist, asserts that foreign capital is absolutely necessary to the development of Mexico's resources because Mexicans have not the capital to put into the extensive enterprises and would not invest it if they had it. In the face of these demands, now made publicly and declared to be imperative, Carranza's official circle has no notion, it is said, of protecting foreign capital in Mexico. This is borne out by the following official statement recently made by Ing. F. Vasquez Schaffino, chief of the petroleum bureau of the department of industry, commerce and labor:

"The steps taken by the petroleum bureau have followed a program whose main points may be summarized as follows: To engage in a work of propaganda and diffusion of all data relating to the petroleum industry so as to interest national capital and to invite the attention of Mexican industrial, professional men and workmen, in order that they may play an active and important part in the development of this industry, making it, in a short time, an essentially and genuinely Mexican industry."

This official statement, which it is believed here was inspired by Carranza, coupled with the advice of Louis Cabrera, secretary of the treasury, urging the supreme court to be in no haste about considering the petroleum cases now before it, has aroused great interest in official circles here. The petroleum cases now before the Mexican supreme court are there on the advice of the American state department, which asked the American oil companies to conform to all the requirements of the Mexican law step by step from the lowest courts to the highest courts in the land.

ARCHDUKE JOSEF HAS RESIGNED

RESIGNATION OCCURRED AT EIGHT O'CLOCK SATURDAY NIGHT AND NEW CABINET CHOSEN.

By the Associated Press

PARIS, Aug. 25.—Resignation from the Hungarian government of Archduke Joseph, previously reported in press advices, was announced in a message received today by the supreme council of the peace conference. The messages indicated that the resignation occurred at 8 o'clock Saturday night and that the formation of a new cabinet, in which three places have already been filled, had begun.

Former Premier Jules Peidl will be the food minister. Former Minister of Justice Garami will be minister of commerce. Karl Payer was designated as minister of labor.

Miss Lola Horton and A. T. Horton, who have been the guests of their sister, Mrs. Clarence West for the past ten days returned yesterday to Tulsa. Miss Zuma Horton was also the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence West, she returned last night to Frisco where she is teaching school.

Gorgeous Evening Gowns and Others

Heavy satin cloth of silver and rich fall colors are the materials that are in demand for formal evening gowns. These materials are gorgeous in themselves and therefore adapted to the present styles in evening dress, which depends upon graceful draping of the figure and not upon embellishments for interest. It is beauty of fabric and beauty of lines that must hold the attention.

Sometimes, in the simpler models, the drapery suggests the ease and flowing lines of the classic Greek garments, and sometimes a single piece of material appears to be wrapped about the figure, with a long loose end forming a train. But an artist in draping may use material more freely than is indicated in either of these styles so long as he knows how to use drapery to glorify the figure. The corsage is usually plain and flat at the front and held in place by narrow shoulder straps. It follows the lines of the corsetless figure very closely here and does not concern itself with covering much of the back. Gowns of this kind, cut in step length or a little shorter, in peacock shades or jade green and in the regulation evening shades, worn with satin slippers and silk hose to match, are likely to out-shine any rivals.

The draped satin gown in the picture is one of those in which the material seems to be wrapped about the figure and to end in a short train. It is of white satin with a drapery of tulle on one shoulder that falls almost to the ankles, from the other shoulder strands of beads fall in long loops and there is a trailing spray of silver roses at the back to finish up the splendor.

The pretty dress of turquoise georgette crepe shown in company with this gorgeous evening gown, does not aspire to rival it. Yet it might appear at the same function and prove as pleasing. Not every woman can carry off magnificence, and times have so changed that many fine ladies have no longer much use for it. The simpler, fine-grained things suit them better; so they choose that which fits personality and do not attempt to play a role that does not please them.

Congressman Sanders Compares Cost of Late War to That With Spain

By News' Special Service

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Inter-esting comparison on the cost of the world war to America with the cost at which the war with Spain was fought back in 1898 is made by Representative J. Y. Sanders, former governor of Louisiana, in a speech in the house of representatives.

Complete refutation of republican charges of extravagance was furnished by Representative Sanders, who showed that cost per man under arms to the United States was not much greater in the late war than during the Spanish war. This despite the fact that everything the government needed to equip, sustain and support its army during the late war cost far more than back in the nineties, in many instances a hundred per cent more than the market prices that prevailed at that time.

Three Months' Fighting. The period of real fighting in the Spanish-American war was only about three months; officially, the country was at war from the latter part of April, 1898, to April 11, 1899, when the peace treaties were exchanged, or a little less than a year. The total number of men in the army during the Spanish war was 278,000, of whom only a small number ever reached Cuba. To prosecute that war cost the country $377,000,000, or about $1,350 per man for a little less than a year of war, a war fought in Cuba, but a step away from the coast of the United States.

America's participation in the world war dates from April, 1917. At the end of the present fiscal year, June 30, 1919, the peace treaty still being unsigned, America had been at war with Germany two and a quarter years. The cost of that war to the United States is reckoned at $21,000,000,000, which Mr. Sanders estimated is approximately $2,543 per year per man under arms for the two years and a quarter.

The Price Held Down. "In 1917 and 1918," said Mr. Sanders, "just twenty years after the Spanish war when the prices of everything had doubled and quadrupled, the price of the war per man was actually held down to a negligible increase over the cost per man in 1898."

"We raised, equipped and transported an army at a cost per man less than 100 per cent greater than it took to do the same thing in 1918, and we raised a better organized army; we equipped it better than we did twenty years ago; we transported it 3,000 miles over hostile seas, where we had to face only a peaceful strait in 1898. And the cost was maintained at a level less than twice the cost per man of the previous war, and we cared for our soldiers better, gave them better food and equipment, and more of it, and paid them more money and gave them more benefits than we did during the war with Spain, and gave them more in combined salary and various war benefits, family allowances, insurance privileges, and so forth, than any nation ever gave its fighting men in this or any other war in history."

Compares Death Rate. Mr. Sanders showed that in our war with Germany, had the death rate from the disease been the same as in the Spanish war, losses from disease alone would have been from September 1, 1917, to May 2, 1919, over 112,000 men; they were actually less than 50,000. Had the Civil war death rate prevailed, they would have been over 227,000.

Statistics show, Mr. Sanders pointed out, that had the death rate from malaria that prevailed during the Spanish war prevailed during the late war, deaths from that cause during the same period would have numbered 11,000; they were actually 13. Had the Spanish war dysentery death rate prevailed during the war with Germany, they would have numbered over 6,000; if the Civil war death rate had prevailed, they would have numbered 63,000. The deaths from dysentery during the late war, 142 died during the Spanish war and 1,500 during the Civil war.

Another item which entered into the cost of the late war that of course did not appear in the others was aviation, which cost approximately $1,000,000,000. Pay for soldiers, privates receiving $30 per month accounted for about $4,000,000,000.

Refers to Food Scandal. After referring to the investigation of the food scandal of the Spanish war, when a court of inquiry, named under the direction of President McKinley, characterized the handling of the supply as a "colossal blunder," Mr. Sanders said:

"Whatever else may have been said by our men returned from overseas as to their hardships, none has yet said, to my knowledge, that indelible, nauseating meat was ever given him for food while in the services of his country in France.

"I contend that the great war, besides being a shining achievement in the cause of humanity, was an achievement in efficiency and economy unrivaled in the life of our nation, and the indisputable evidence of the history of all past wars bears out this assertion.

"America's achievement in the war just ended is the marvel of the ages, and unstinted praise comes from all the world, and the nations that we rescued from the grasp of the Hun stand even today amazed at the rapidity of our participation in the struggle. Not a voice is raised in all the world at what we did or how we did it save here at home. The harmony of the chorus of approval of all humanity is marred in its completeness only by the critic in our midst, and his criticism will be lost as the years go by in the universal acclaim accorded the splendid administration that so splendidly handled the splendid resources and splendid men of a splendid people."

The Church, the Pillar and Support of Truth

(Sermon at the First Christian Church yesterday morning.)

Text:—"These things write I unto you hoping to come unto thee shortly; but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the Living God, the pillar and ground of the truth." 1 Tim. 3:14,15.

The word "pillar" in this text refers to a supporting column, while the "ground" refers to the foundation, or base.

The truth needs support. Truth is like a house that will be resolved into ruin if it is not protected and repaired. Truth has two strong enemies, false teaching and false living. Atheism, infidelity, skepticism, and vain philosophy are examples of false teaching. False living is sin. These are seeking to destroy truth. Therefore truth needs defense. Truth may vindicate itself, but while it is doing it, the lie will do irreparable damage. The truth has been on the block, has drunk the cup of hemlock, has been on the gallows, has been roasted in a slow furnace, has been in the electric chair, has been cast down to the earth but "Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The eternal years of God are hers."

The kind of truth the church is to support is not scientific or philosophical truth, but religious truth. It supports the truth that there is a God who is supreme and intelligent, who made the universe, and who presides over the affairs of men. This is the most sublime truth known to man. It was when Israel forgot God that she began to decay. In addition to the existence of God the church supports the truth of his fatherhood and love.

The church supports the truth about Christ, his divine sonship, his saviorhood, and his love. It supports the truth about man, that he is the offspring of God, that in his present condition he is lost, that he can be redeemed, that he is immortal, and that he is responsible to his Maker.

The church is the only institution actively supporting these grand verities. Some governments, some fraternal organizations and some homes, freely admit their truth, but are not actively engaged in impressing them on the world. Their work is in another sphere. These truths about God, Christ, and man are the most vital of all truths. They have more to do with human progress than anything else, than any other form of truth. The church with all its mistakes and its sins (and it has plenty of them) is still rendering the world the greatest of all services in supporting these far-reaching truths. Therefore the church merits the whole-hearted support of every man.

Negro Woman Cuts H. C. L. With Spinning Wheel

By News' Special Service

POTEAU, Okla., Aug. 23.—Although various schemes have been put into operation to reduce the cost of living it has remained for Nora Cooper, a negress of this city, to bring forward an industry that flourished a hundred years ago.

She has taken quarters in a negro school house where she has installed an old fashioned spinning wheel that is said to be more than 100 years old. She spins her own threads from raw cotton and cards and weaves it upon the looms into cloth. The machine can turn out ten yards of material a day. Nora is an old time "down South" negro and intends disposing of her cloth products at prices that make the present tariffs on cloth look sick.

The acceptance of the League of Nations on February added a sacred festival to our calendar and made Paris one of the holy cities.—Rev. Dr. Arthur T. Guttery.

Why Doesn't He Propose?

BY FRANCES McDONALD

THE GIRL WHO IS ALWAYS LATE.

"I am in love with a girl—or at least I thought I was—but lately I get on my nerves that she always is late—for everything. If we go to the theater we have to climb over people in the midst of the first act. We miss trains and sit for hours in railroad stations, all because she is late—and the result is our evenings together are always ruined by what she terms my ill temper—but what I call her inability to keep an appointment."

This poor chap wants me to make a plea for the man who has to "spend his whole evening waiting for the girl to materialize." Well, I certainly do feel for those chaps whose hours of leisure are so few and who elect to spend those precious hours with the one girl—and then sit staring at her grandfather's portrait for what seems an eternity while she in her boudoir above applies fifty-seven varieties of face cream and other lubricants before descending for the fray. Why do you do it—you little fussy Nancys, and don't you know it ruffles the poor boy's temper and how in turn he then ruffles yours?

The first thing you know you and John "aren't going together any more," and either one or the other is writing to some wise old spinster like myself for advice. My "advice" is, forget the cold cream and remember John. Remember he does not come all the way to your home for the pleasure of contemplating the noble features of your mother's favorite uncle and your father's favorite aunt. He comes there because he wants to see you; because he wants to take in a movie with the nicest little girl in town—and it sure does make him desperately angry to hear the living room clock strike nine before he has even clapped an eye on Nancy.

As yet there has not been discovered a face cream that can guarantee a pleasant and satisfactory evening with a man who is "mad clear through." And you will find it out too late.

Be on hand when the poor boy comes. Don't make him sit and listen to your Dad snoring on the other side of the portiere. Be there—on the job and ready to start out for a good long evening of fun. And you will accomplish your purpose far more rapidly than by your present methods. Remember—your mother had never heard of cold cream when she was your age—yet by hook or crook she had your dad at the altar before he knew what had happened to him. So just be your wonderful little self and BE ON HAND.

Don't lose a perfectly good proposal for the sake of so small a fault as being late. Don't expect a man's ardor to survive a half hour's wait. Masculine ardor like war time leather, is not guaranteed against strain. Yet even as we must be shod, war or no war, so must we be made love in order to live. Hence we must take the product as offered, make the most of it and avoid the strains. So be on time. Open the door for him.

He will have visions of your opening the door for him every evening for life—which is a step in the right direction. As a matter of fact, if you really marry him, he will let himself in with a key like every other husband—and you will be back in the kitchen stirring the soup while he does it—but no need to be too practical now—so open the door for him by all means and start him dreaming of the day when he will have a house of his own to come to and a wife of his own to welcome him—and before you know it John will have proposed.

MILLER BROTHERS TO BUY BIG RANCH

OWNERS OF 101 RANCH TO PURCHASE 150,000 ACRES OF RANCH LANDS IN OLD MEXICO.

By News' Special Service

PONCA CITY, Okla., Aug. 23.—Only the sanction of the United States government is now awaited by Miller brothers, owners of the famous 101 ranch here, to close the purchase of a 150,000 acre ranch in Old Mexico. So far as the contracting parties are concerned according to Col Zach Miller, the deal has been closed and all details agreed upon. George L. Miller has been in Mexico for some time, evidently arranging the deal.

The new ranch of the Miller brothers—Joe, Zach and George—is known as the Gulyan estate and was the property of a prominent New Mexican politician who died during the war. It is located in the state of Coahuila, about 150 miles from Eagle Pass.

It is the intention of the Miller brothers to operate their new ranch as a grain and cattle proposition. It is said to be unusually fertile and adapted to wheat growing. The average rainfall is given at twenty-two inches per year, and 5,000 acres of the Gulyan is under irrigation. Planting in the Mexican terms of carobes, it is said that this year's yield one cargo of grain made a fifty-cargo return.

The Miller brothers have been operating in Oklahoma since the opening of the Cherokee strip and their 101 ranch here is the best known in America. They also own the Bar L ranch here. The Millers own 16,000 acres in fee in the Ponca City locality and have a large Indian acreage leased in addition. It is both a live stock and agricultural proposition, and in addition to cattle, hogs, horses and mules, the Millers also have a big herd of buffalo and one of ostriches.

All the Millers are prominent in business and political affairs, being democrat, George L. Miller is now president of the local Owen-for-president club. He is one of this city's strong boosters, is a director of the chamber of commerce and chairman of its committee on Indian affairs. The 101 ranch is one of the great show places, not only of Oklahoma, but of the entire west.

Who Will Control the Roads?

Farm and Ranch: The labor unions, the railway operators and the railway administration have told congress what they wanted. In the case of the unions, they made demands backed by a threat to tie up transportation if congress did not accede. Is it not time the people who pay transportation bills and suffer during strikes have a voice in the settlement of this momentous question?

It is a very easy matter to see why the railway employees want government ownership or tripartite control. They have been able to get what they want from the railway administration even to back pay and shorter hours, and this during the war when every citizen was expected to work harder and longer hours to save our country from the Hun.

But both the producer and the consumer want service. They do not want politics of the "job hunters" to have control of such important service as transportation. The government took over the railways to hasten supplies and troops to the front in order that the war might be won. The common people have been deprived of service. This they were willing to endure so long as war seemed to require it. But there is no longer any excuse for poor service and prohibitory rates. If the laborers do not wish to work in the shops, offices or on trains they might get employment as farm hands. There is a great demand for food producers. But there may not be short days, strikes and back pay in farming.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Aug. 23.—Jess Cochran, who has been living in Texas for five years, came to Muskogee today and surrendered to A. A. Taylor, telling Taylor that he is the man who killed Peter Blanket, a full blooded Indian, near Hulbert, Oklahoma, in April, 1914.

He said that he could not still his conscience or still the remorse that overwhelmed him.

Blanket was found dead in the woods one day with leaves and rush covering his body. He had been shot to death. Officers were unable to find a clue, but no one suspected Cochran. The man was taken to Tahlequah today where he will enter a plea of guilty.

THE ADVERTISEMENTS HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY TO YOU

If a merchant or manufacturer could gather 5000 or 10,000 or 100,000 prospective buyers into a large auditorium and talk to them daily—by word of mouth—he would have no need of advertisements. BUT HE CANNOT.

So he puts his words in type and talks to these same prospective buyers each day in the printed messages that you know as advertisements.

In this newspaper today you will find many such personal messages from merchants and manufacturers.

Some are large and some are small. They cover a wide range of subjects. They are worthy of your careful reading.

No merchant or manufacturer would spend his good money advertising if his merchandise were not of good quality and fairly priced. It wouldn't pay!

Don't miss the advertisements. They will save you money.

THANK GOODNESS.
IT'S QUIT raining.
AND IT'S had me worried.
SOMETHING AWFUL.
AND PROBABLY you've noticed.
THAT BILL Coffman.
HAS A preference.
FOR PALM Beach trousers.
AND AT the beginning.
OF THE rainy spell.
THEY FITTED him first rate.
BUT AFER a couple of days.
OF STEADY rain.
I BEGAN to notice.
WHEN I met him.
THAT THEY were getting.
RATHER TIGHT around the legs.
AND EVERY time I saw him.
IT SEEMED to me.
THAT THE pants had shrunk.
AN INCH or two.
BOTH LENGTHWISE.
AND CROSSWISE.
AND IT fascinated me.
AND I used to think about it.
FOR HOURS at a time.
AND WALK past his place.
TO FIND out.

IF THEY'D shrunk any more.
AND BY Saturday.
OF THIS week.
THEY'D GOTTEN way up.
BEYOND HIS shootops.
AND THEN I began looking.
FOR HIS garters to appear.
AND IT worried me.
BECAUSE THEY didn't.
AND SATURDAY afternoon.
HE WAS in his store.
SELLING some lady.
A COFFEE pot.
AND HE stooped over.
TO PICK up something.
FROM THE floor.
AND MY heart stopped beating.
BUT THEY didn't split.
AND ANYWAY.
I CAN'T stand much excitement.
AND I'M mighty glad.
THAT IT'S quit raining.
AND THERE'S no telling.
WHERE THOSE pants.
WOULD HAVE gone to.

judge, county attorney and county superintendent of Pontotoc County as the members of the county council of defense to choose the complete membership of the council.
Under the instructions from the state council, the county judge is to be chairman. The two members of the State Council of Defense from Pontotoc county, Mr. Luther Harrison and Mrs. Tom Hope, having been appointed by the governor, will also be ex-officio members of this county council.
The committee met Saturday, and after a careful deliberation selected as members of the county council those whom they believed would be fair and zealous in the fulfillment of the duties outlined for them by the State Council of Defense. The following were the ones chosen for

SEMINOLE MAN SAVED FROM ELECTRIC CHAIR

Sentenced to the Electric chair for criminal assault, reprieved ten times, and finally pardoned unconditionally is the experience of Neal McLaughlin of Franklin county.
Four years ago he was convicted in district court at Ozark and sentenced to death. He was granted a short reprieve by Governor Hays even after he had been placed in the death cell, and this reprieve was renewed from time to time till last week, when McLaughlin was granted a pardon by Governor Brough. It is said that the prosecuting witness had admitted to testifying falsely in the trial of McLaughlin.
Neal McLaughlin lived for some time in Seminole county in 1912-13, and was considered by the officers one of the worst characters that ever lived in that county. He hung out among the negroes along Little River and gave the authorities a lot of trouble. At one time he was arrested on a serious charge involving a Seminole county girl and spent some time in the jail at Wewoka.

After his release he sent an open threat to kill the sheriff, Henry Moore, at the first opportunity. He skipped the county soon after only to appear in the death cell at Little Rock. He was involved in a drunken spree with some Little River negroes in 1913, when Zan Minters was killed by Caesar Payne and Miles Harmon—both of whom were tried for the offense. There will be some disappointment in Seminole county that Governor Brough did not permit
McLaughlin to go to the chair.

ACCORDING TO THE LAW OF THE LAND

Regardless of how much or how little profiteering is being done in Oklahoma and regardless of what steps are taken to correct the evil complained of, we are strongly of the opinion that such steps should be taken according to the law of the land. We believe that our regularly constituted authorities should have charge of the campaign against the profiteers and that such campaign should be conducted according to the laws of Oklahoma.

If we have a law against profiteering, it should be enforced. If we have no such law, we should get one, provided, of course, that the evil of profiteering exists in the state to anything like the extent the public seems to believe. If any investigation discloses wide-spread practice of the black art of overcharging, then we believe the proper thing to do is to convene a special session of the state legislature and deal with this problem in a legal way.

We take this position with the utmost friendliness to our councils of defense. During the dark hours of the war they did noble work to enforce respect for the army and government and secure the most efficient co-operation of all citizens. They did a work which constitutes a monument to their wisdom and diligence and which otherwise could not have been done at all. But even at that the council was only quasi legal, and much of its work was beyond the pale of the law. It got away with what it undertook because what it undertook was right and because moral sentiment was behind it. It is extremely doubtful if the council can pursue similar tactics under peace conditions and get away with it. It is doubtful if public sentiment will be sufficient to sustain it and safeguard it and secure an enforcement of its decrees. Moreover, the council will lay itself liable every time it puts a profiteer out of business and every member of the council will become liable for damages in a court of law.

There is another objection to irregular organizations during peace times and that objection is paramount. Lawless methods should never be employed to suppress lawlessness. For the public to brand as a crime what the law does not recognize as a crime and to attempt illegally to punish what it has illegally classed as a crime is the very essence and embodiment of mob law. It is nothing but taking the law into our own hands. To set up in this country an illegal tribunal and charge it with enforcing the wishes of the public is simply setting up in this country an American counterpart of the soviets of Russia. Such a practice, if pursued to the ultimate, will generate more disrespect for law and order than almost anything else we could possibly do.

In fine we are of the opinion that profiteering should be handled by our legal officials if they have the power to act, and if they have no such power and the situation demands correction, then they should be clothed with that power by the lawmakers of the state.

Every citizen of Ada is a committee of one to help make next week's reunion the best ever held in Oklahoma. Committees have been appointed, but no committee can get the best results unless it has the hearty co-operation of the public. While the best wishes of all our people are with the committee on arrangements, everyone should add his active support to his moral indorsement and do several times as much as he has been asked to do. This is essentially a public project and the public should accept it as such and lend every assistance to make the reunion a pronounced success. If you have a car, place it at the disposal of the committee. Don't wait to be called on—call up the committee and offer your help. Nearly every town in Oklahoma will be represented here next week. It will do them good and do you good, and do Ada good to let all our visitors have a sight of the Ada spirit at work.

Really we would like to know what has become of that road building scheme that we were promised last May if we would only defeat the road bonds. The promisors seem to have gone on a strike.

By the way, have any of you received a letter from Scot Ferris trying to prove that he was loyal during the war? Neither have we. The men who were really loyal do not have to prove it.

You can say this much for the bomb-droppers at least—they finally dropped the kaiser, the biggest bum of them all.

We have now had nearly two months of national prohibition and the smoke goes up the chimney just the same.

Chickasha Express: Under the circumstances a peace league might be a pretty good investment. What say you, senators?

Chickasha Express: McAlester is taking on metropolitan airs since the town scored about three shootings and a suicide in one week.

Lawton Constitution: No, the advance in cost has not affected the demand for automobiles. It is still possible to mortgage a home.

Chickasha Express: According to recent figures the war cost 195 billion dollars. And that's a fairly neat sum of money, when you come to think of it.

Shawnee News: Of course it can not be said that Andrew Carnegie did not mean it when he expressed a desire to die a pauper. The fact is that Andy's faculties were none too strong the last few years of his life.

Madill Record: Every since these red "X-ed" circulars were put out by the Commercial Club, the Record by some coincidence has been getting ice every morning, too, when we get ice it seems full weight or maybe it might be overweight, it looks so big. Action sometimes brings big results. It pays to advertise.

Durant Democrat: Like the Borahs and the Shermans, and the Poindexters and the Hiram Johnsons and the Brandeeges and the Reeds of the United States senate, Gen. con Bernhardt "takes no stock" in the League of Nations. The old German "fire-eater" still believes in war and is predicting another war. These senators pretend that they do not believe in war—except possibly with Japan—but they are doing everything in their power to make war a permanent institution.

Atoka Citizen-Democrat: During the past week the Ada News and the Ada Star-Democrat have consolidated, Marvin Brown, editor of the News, remaining as editor of the consolidated paper and Senator Luther Harrison, editor of the Star-Democrat, becoming associate editor of the consolidated paper. This change will make the News probably the strongest paper of its class in Oklahoma.

Heldton Herald: On August 12 the Ada Evening News and the Ada Weekly News announces the consolidation of that publication with the Ada Star-Democrat and the addition of Luther Harrison to the staff of the News as editorial writer. Luther Harrison and Marvin Brown make one of the strongest teams in the state and the change will be for the material benefit of all parties concerned. The Ada News is one among the best newspapers in the state and the addition to its staff, both in mechanical and news departments, will greatly enhance its value.

Andmore Statesman: You have all heard the story about the ducky who prepared a dose of medicine, in powdered form, for his mule, then when a friend held the mule's mouth open and a tube containing the powder was inserted therein, the mule "got the first blow" by coughing before the negro could inflate his lungs. Now it looks to the writer that that is very much what happened when the Foreign Relations Committee of the senate put Woodrow Wilson on the witness stand last Monday morning. As soon as everything was "all set," the president with his usual "if I may" remark, proceeded to read an address to the committee—and through them into the press of the world—that, to our inept judgment, completely knocked the pins from under the would-be cross-examiners. He literally "passed the buck" to the senate, with the suave insinuation, "them's my sentiments," now when are you going to act? Not a peep has been heard from any except two of the senators, viz: Borah and Johnson, since the meeting adjourned Monday afternoon. Were we reporting the scrap we would surely use the headline "first round to Wilson."

Papers Consolidate. Wetumka Gazette: The Ada Weekly News and the Ada Star-Democrat have been consolidated, which means a better paper for that growing city. Luther Harrison will be associate editor of the Evening News, which gives that daily two of the best editorial writers in the state. Since Editor Brown assumed management a few months ago the paper has been enlarged and improved in many ways; now with Luther Harrison on the staff, a man who has few equals in wielding the pencil, the News will take its place among the real metropolitan papers. It is not often two as strong writers as Brown and Harrison associate themselves together in the publication of a paper and the citizens of Ada are fortunate indeed to have such a combination at the head of their organ.

State Educational News

By JACK LONDON

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 24.—The Marietta public schools, under the leadership of Supt. W. C. Johnson, are making notable progress. Plans for the coming year contemplate the erection of a new gymnasium building, the appointment of a graduate nurse by the Red Cross who will have a clinic room in each building where medical inspection and care will be given the pupils, and an efficiency survey of the entire Marietta school system.

The recent election of Mr. F. H. Abbott, formerly of Ft. Towson, to the superintendency of the Stigler schools should assure an era of educational progress in that city. A very able corps of teachers have been engaged by the Stigler board of education. Two rooms are being added to the ward building and a quantity of new apparatus has just been received.

Linking up education with the life of his pupils seems to be the policy of Supt. J. O. Shaw of Frederick schools. Mr. Shaw is stressing vocational education, agriculture, home economics, manual training and teacher training. He reports that the results are highly satisfactory.

County Superintendent H. P. Battles of Muskogee county has solved the truancy officer problems most satisfactorily. Limited by law to $4.00 per day out of the county's funds for the truancy officer's salary, Mr. Battles has arranged with the county board and all the ten districts to employ the same man for truancy officer. After paying his own expenses the officer has a fair salary left.

A teachers' training course will be held in Perry the first week in September for all teachers who intend to teach in Noble county.

Closer and healthier co-operation between the school board and teaching corps seems assured for the Copan school system. The board has just completed four modern cottages to be occupied by the teachers, thus providing ideal living conditions. Supt. E. S. McCabe is enthusiastic over the prospects for growth of the Copan schools.

State Superintendent R. H. Wilson has arranged for P. G. Holden, director of the educational extension department of the International Harvester Company to spend four weeks in Oklahoma during September, holding four meetings with teachers. The meetings are to be held at Sapulpa, Enid, Chickasha and Durant. About 100 are expected to attend each of the meetings and they will be given intensive training in teaching agriculture according to the plan outlined by Mr. Holden. Mr. Holden has met the demand for a change in the teaching of the same work in agriculture each by a plan of rotation which takes four years to complete. Missouri adopted the plan several years ago for a few schools and this year is extending the plan to the schools in all cities and villages. It is hoped that this plan will later be extended to all the schools of Oklahoma.

Superintendents in thirty counties have been asked to send some of their best teachers to these meetings and they are responding enthusiastically.

Pottawatomie county is progressing nicely with the consolidation of schools movement, one new district being organized this year besides two union graded districts.

The Okmulgee schools, H. B. Bruner, superintendent, are showing the way in the matter of progress. A new grade building of 16 rooms has just been completed while a $200,000 vocational building is in process of erection. Courses in auto repairing, electric and acetylene welding, domestic arts, home nursing and journalism are a few of those to be taught in the new building. Four teachers of backward and precocious children have been engaged by the board each of whom are especially trained and experienced in this work. Okmulgee city schools seem to be striving for the practical in their educational work.

morning at 8 o'clock, caught a train at 7:45 o'clock, rode 14 miles to Douglas, Ga., reaching Douglas at 7:30 o'clock, ate breakfast at 7:15 o'clock, made some purchases and caught a train back home at 7:30 o'clock. According to our different times he was gone from home an hour and a half and got back home 30 minutes before he started.

A GENIUS PRODUCING MASTERPIECES OF ART

Right here in the city of Ada, Oklahoma, we have a real artist in the person of Mr. C. B. Snider. Mr. Snider's studio is located in the big room over the Overland sales rooms at 114 North Broadway. Here, you may visit him at any time thru the day and he will be found painting an automobile, a sign or a beautiful picture.

His knowledge and understanding of painting in all its varied branches is the result of 35 years of constant study and work.

As a boy, Mr. Snider worked his way thru a course of study in the Metropolitan School of Art in New York, after which he served an apprenticeship under A. Tojetti, the famous Italian mural decorator.

Although Mr. Snider paints automobiles for a living, his pictures are not daubs, but on the contrary are exquisite works of art, bold and daring in conception, a riot of exquisite coloring handled with the sureness of perfect mastery, accompanied by the nerve of a clean and wholesome nature.

It's a far cry from automobiles to roses in the realm of art, but Mr. Snider has embraced both in a series of six pictures he is now painting.

It is so seldom that one meets a decided genius, even in the larger cities, that we are proud to learn that he intends to make his home here with us. Success to Mr. Snider.

How Daylight Was Wasted.

The following speech made in the national house of representatives by Congressman Lanford of Georgia in favor of repealing the Daylight Saving Law, shows how changing the time has confused the citizens of Ambrose, Ga.:

Mr. Speaker, I find it necessary to vote to override the President's veto on this measure to repeal the daylight saving law.

The people of my district have been very much inconvenienced by the so-called daylight-saving idea.

We were in the central zone and were transferred to the eastern time zone and advanced one hour, and under the so-called daylight-saving scheme we were advanced another hour.

So now noon comes at 10 o'clock in the morning and 9 o'clock in the evening comes before dark. Many of the good people of my district like to retire by 9 o'clock but they do not like to go to bed before dark.

It is all wrong. We now have seven times. We have sun time, the old central time, eastern time, advanced time, incorrect time, no time, and a bad time.

If a man says he will call at your office at 2 o'clock, you do not know whether he means at 12 o'clock, 1 o'clock, 2 o'clock, 3 o'clock, or 4 o'clock. All depends on the time you have in mind and the time the other fellow has in mind. Every day mistakes are made because of this tangled-up time proposition.

A man the other day in my district and county at Ambrose, Ga., said that he got out of bed in the

YESTERDAY AT THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Yesterday was a day of encouragement at the First Christian Church. Unusually large audiences assembled both morning and evening. In the morning the minister preached on the theme: "The Church, the Pillar and Support of the Truth." When the invitation was given sixteen persons came forward for membership. They were: T. A. Miller, Mrs. T. A. Miller, Mildred Miller, C. P. Penrose, Mrs. C. P. Penrose, A. Swanson, Mrs. Maggie Miller, W. S. Mooney, A. R. Dixon, Mrs. A. R. Dixon, Mrs. E. V.

McLachlan, Winifred McLachlan, M. A. Nickell, C. E. Qualls, Fred Clinkenbeard, Bernice Borders. Mrs. McLachlan and her daughter Miss Winifred were baptized at four o'clock in the afternoon. At the evening service three girls of one family made the good confession and were baptized "the same hour of the night." They were Gladys Smith and her two sisters Bessie and Carrie.

F., recently died of lesion of the heart.

Around City Hall

Police Flush Dark Covey.
Chief of Police John Rawls and patrolman Wick Adair flushed a covey of negro crap shooters at the home of Emma James yesterday and captured ten in the act. They were brought to the station where a part of them gave cash bond immediately the balance of the number remaining in jail until this morning when they were released after all had paid fines and cost in the sum of $14.75 each.

The mayor states that he is going to break up the gambling in darktown if fines will do it, and hereafter the boys of color may expect the limit when they come before his honor, the mayor.

Emma James, in whose house the game was pinched, also contributed $14.75 to the city till.

Lawrence James and Dixon James were taken in by the cops Saturday afternoon after it has been discovered that they had too much bug juice aboard and after being arraigned before his honor, the mayor, each contributed $8.75 to the city.

The mayor states that the people responded nobly to his proclamation making last Friday clean-up day, and that as a consequence the entire city looks as if it had just had a fresh shave. Mayor Kitchens called attention to the fact that mosquitoes have not been as numerous this season as formerly, and he attributes it to the fact that the people have kept their weeds cut and their premises reasonably clean.

NOTICE, W. O. W.

All members of the Woodmen of the World are urged to be present at the hall at 8:30 tomorrow evening for the purpose of arranging for the Labor Day picnic and attending to other important matters. The officers expect you—do not disappoint them.

J. M. Welborn will return to his old position at Shaw's Department store, beginning work Tuesday morning. He will have full charge of the dress goods department, a line in which he has had many years of experience and has made his life study. Mr. Welborn invites his many friends and acquaintances to visit his department.

U. C. V. Picket Shots

Capt. W. H. Fisher, one of the popular veterans of the city, is at Sulphur recuperating from recent illness.

Sponsors for the reunion beginning here tomorrow are Misses Catherine Edmonston Mollie Russell and Pollie Stanfield. Mrs. R. W. Simpson is matron.

Mrs. Czarina Colbert Conlan of Oklahoma City is present taking an active part in the work of the reunion. Mrs. Conlan is one of the prominent leaders among the Daughters of the Confederacy and has long been active in the Women's club work of the state. While in the city she will be the guest of Mrs. Marvin Brown.

Many of the veterans think Ardmore will be better represented at the reunion than any other town or city in the state. Ardmore is the location of the old veterans' home and is a candidate for the next state reunion. It is said that the inmates of the home are anxious that Ardmore be named as the place of the next reunion, and the veterans of Ardmore are bent on taking home the honor if within their power to do so.

Col. C. W. Geers of Mill Creek arrived at noon to meet his old battlefield comrades. Col. Geers served thru the war under General John H. Morgan in the Second Kentucky cavalry and was in the famous "Morgan raid" thru Ohio in the summer of '63. He was captured and imprisoned for a time at Camp Douglas. Altho he is now in his eightieth year, Col. Geers is remarkably well preserved and looks the typical Confederate colonel. He is editor of the Mill Creek Herald and Inspector General on the staff of General R. A. Sneed.

Hon. R. C. Roland informed a News reporter this morning that Gov. Robertson would sure be here on the 27th. The fact that the governor has been out of the state for several days has caused some to think he might not keep his appointment at Ada, but Mr. Roland had a letter from him last week assuring him that he would fill his engagement with the old veterans here on the 27th.

The old fiddlers contest to be staged by the old veterans Wednesday night promises to be the most interesting feature of the reunion from the standpoint of fun and entertainment. The old fiddlers association, composed of veterans from the states of Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas and Missouri, will stage the contest and it is said that there will be many entries. The association is composed of veterans of the Confederacy of the states named, and no man is eligible unless he saw at least six months' service in the Confederate army. In the contest, however, Union and Confederate soldiers are both eligible, and the association challenges any eligible contestant from west of the Mississippi river. It is expected that many will accept the challenge for Wednesday night's performance on the streets of Ada. Col. H. C. Gilliland of Altus, Okla., is president of the association and is expected to arrive in Ada tomorrow morning.

GERMANS SEEK TO BRING ABOUT TERROR

By the Associated Press
PARIS, Aug. 25.—Germany has declined to invite the allied troops to help police upper Silesia before they have a right to do so under the peace treaty, which stipulates that they safeguard the plebiscite there. The Silesian situation is unsatisfactory and the Germans are reported to be bringing about a return of the recent reign of terror there.

RALPH ADAIR WRITES ABSORBING LETTERS

June 4, 1919.

Dear Mother and All:
I am in Vladivostok, Siberia, but think we leave today. This is inside the war zone and there are not many civilians here except women and children. Every race of people in the world is found here, and there are more kinds of fights. There are more Chinamen here than anything else and they don't know how water feels, for you can smell one several feet away.

There are some of the prettiest and largest buildings here I ever saw, only they are not high, just long and wide. The streets are paved but are pretty rough, and the sidewalks are pretty bad. They have street cars here, but they only run when they feel like it.

I can count Russian money a little now, and am sending you a little. There are no silver or metal coins here; all paper. Their small pieces of paper, like stamps, are kopeks, and it takes 100 kopeks to make one ruble. A ruble is equal to about five cents in U. S. money. I went up town and paid ten rubles for three hot cakes. That's about fifty cents.

There is a very small Y. M. C. A. building here but it is used by all nations and is often overcrowded. The Y. is a large tin building and is not painted on the outside, but is provided with a cafeteria, writing tables, pool tables, cold drink stands, a library, club room, gymnasium and a theatre. I saw a good play Monday night by the sailors off the British ship "Kent."

British, Chinese, Japanese and American battleships are to be seen here and with so many sailors, we have a pretty rough time. The American soldiers here have several German prisoners, and they say they were surely glad to get captured.

Just to let you know how ignorant people are here, let me tell you what I saw the other day. I went up on the hill where I saw a little house and looked in, and there on the floor were several dead people lying piled up and left there to rot.

Will write again when I get to Japan.

Love to all. RALPH.

Shanghai, China, June 27, 1919.

Dear Mother and All:
I am going to write you a few lines from here and also send some letters I wrote about a month ago. I am on the U. S. S. New Orleans and I like it pretty good. I came on board Friday, 13th, but it don't seem very unlucky, although we coaled the ship the next day and that is a pretty good job. We are now in the river at Shanghai. This is a nice place and a good sized place. We get liberty every other night, that is, one section goes one night and the other the next night. We get a Chinese sampan (boat) to shore for ten cents and the men meet us at the dock with about a hundred rickshas, or two wheeled carts, and take us all over town. They pull the carts themselves and run besides. There are very few houses in China, that is, in this part of the country. There is an American settlement here and some real American shows and newspapers. The Chinese people are very friendly with the U. S. sailors but I guess they know if the U. S. didn't help them the Japanese would invade their country.

The laundry men come on board every day and get our dirty clothes, and launder them for three cents apiece, whether it is a handkerchief or a pair of trousers. If we haven't any money they take our clothes and our names and when pay day comes they come for their money.

The people over here make some of the most beautiful souvenirs I ever saw. I bought some and will send them home the first chance I get. We are going back to Vladivostok next month and I think we will be back in the States inside of one year. I have seen some very pretty scenery since I left the States and I like the life very well but I am not able to save any money, as we are always donating to some big organization, or buying necessary articles. A person would think that a sailor would not need much money but after drawing a few clothes and laying in a supply of tobacco, soap and all little things like we all have to have, we are broke when pay day comes. They use English paper money, Mexican dollars, and Chinese small money—some mix-up, but when a fellow draws a big bunch of money he gets a great deal more of this money than he would of the money in the States. One American dollar is $1.27 in Mexican or Chinese money.

I must close now. Write as often as you can and I will do the same. Love to all. RALPH.

EXPECT TO COLLECT SUM OF $53,000,000

SOUTHERN METHODISTS OUTLINE
PLANS FOR HANDLING GREAT CENTENARY FUND.

Organization Will Collect Largest Amount Ever Handled By Any Religious Denomination Anywhere.

The Centenary Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has announced its plan for collecting the $53,000,000.00 which was pledged for the missionary work of the church in the recent eight-day drive. The plan was prepared and will be directed by Colonel John E. Edgerton, of Tennessee, the general centenary treasurer and the director of the department of finance for the Centenary Commission.

Colonel Edgerton is a well known business man. He is president and manager of the Lebanon Woolen Mills, president of the Tennessee State Manufacturers Association, and during the war he was a member of the executive committee of the war industry board appointed by President Wilson.

"Our slogan is no shrinkage, but an increase," said Colonel Edgerton recently. "Just as the Southern Methodist church has surpassed all records in securing pledges for benevolent purposes and has raised the largest sum ever given to any church at one time in the history of the world, so we expect to set a new record in the collection of these pledges."

An Extensive Organization.
The organization through which these pledges will be collected has four centers of responsibility. The first is a general finance commission with headquarters at Nashville, headed by Colonel Edgerton. This commission has prepared the standard plan and will direct the entire movement, handing down to the various bodies throughout the church detailed plans for their guidance.

There will also be a conference cabinet in each annual conference of the church, about forty in number. These conference cabinets will be composed of the Conference Missionary Secretary, Conference Campaign Director, the Lay leader, and the Conference Centenary Treasurer. Each of these officials have certain specific duties, and will direct the work of collecting all the pledges in each annual conference.

In each of the four hundred districts of the church there is a similar cabinet composed of the Presiding Elders, the Lay leaders, Campaign Directors and the Chairman of the Methodist Minute Men. The Conference Missionary Secretary is an ex-officio member of all district cabinets. The work of collecting in the districts will be supervised by this district cabinet.

Twenty Thousand Churches.
In each of the 20,000 local churches there will be local cabinets composed of the pastor, the centenary treasurer, the campaign director, the lay leader, the chairman of the minute men, the Sunday school superintendent and the president of the Woman's Missionary Society. This cabinet will do all the actual work of collecting the individual pledges.

The persons who made subscriptions will be divided into lists of twenty-five and the lists will be placed in charge of a certain member of the church cabinet who will collect all pledges as they come due.

One feature of the standard plan is that the local church will be responsible for collecting the full amount of its subscription. If any subscriber dies or meets with misfortune such as to render it impossible for him to pay his pledge, it will be the duty of the church cabinet to secure another person to take the place of the one thus become delinquent.

It is also proposed that every new member who comes into the church shall also be asked to make a contribution to the Centenary fund.

The Centenary fund of $53,000,000 will be used for the church in an extension of its missionary work throughout the world. Several millions will be spent in the devastated regions of France, Belgium, Poland and Russia. Other millions will go to the seven foreign fields occupied by the church—Mexico, Brazil, Cuba, Africa, China, Japan and Korea. Other millions will be spent in the industrial sections of the great cities, in the mountains, among the immigrants, the negroes and the Indians, and in building churches in the missionary territory of the United States.

Former Secret Service Agent Tells of Mexico's Plot to Invade America

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Revelation of extensive German plots in Mexico during the war, which included a proposed invasion of the United States by a German-Mexican army of 45,000 men, at the same time that the Germans launched their last drive on the western front in July 1918, was made here tonight by the National Association for the Protection of American Rights in Mexico, which gave out a statement by Dr. P. B. Altendorf, formerly of the United States military intelligence department, reciting experience as an American secret service agent in that country.

Doctor Altendorf, the son of a Polish banker in Cracow, Austrian Poland, abandoned a medical course in the University of Vienna at the outbreak of the war and fled to Mexico, where he was offered a position as a German spy to operate against the United States by Kurt Jahnke of the German secret service in Mexico.

Aided Allies.
"With pretended reluctance but with secret joy, I accepted," he said "and at once found myself in a position to render valuable service to the allies in general and the United States in particular."

He opened communication with the border as a volunteer worker to the military intelligence department he claims, and later was sworn in as a special agent of the military intelligence department.

The association states that it has investigated his claims and that Brig. Gen. Marlborough Churchill, head of the military intelligence department "spoke in terms of highest praise of the zeal and trustworthiness of Doctor Altendorf and the great value of the services he rendered."

In addition to explaining his activities in Mexico, Doctor Altendorf warns the people of the United States against a proposed German commercial conquest of Mexico.

Seek Conquest.
"Within six months after the United States ratifies the treaty of peace," he said, "Germany will have complete economic control of Mexico. Within a very few years if they are permitted to carry out the plans they have formulated and are now executing as fast as they can, the Germans will have absolute economic, political and military control of Latin America with headquarters in Mexico."

Referring to the proposed invasion of the United States, Doctor Altendorf sets forth that in his dual capacity as a captain in the German army and a colonel in the Mexican army, he helped to train 9,000 German reservists in Sonora, who were to form the nucleus of the proposed German-Mexican army, and that in his true character as an American secret service agent he prevented the raid from being carried out.

"The ambitious scheme," he said, "was financed by von Eckhardt (German Ambassador to Mexico) and was undertaken with the co-operation of Carranza," says Doctor Altendorf, enumerating his services in Mexico in part:

Blew Up Plants.
"I delivered into the hands of the United States military authorities the German agent Lathar Witke, alias Pablo Wabriski, the most important individual capture of the war, so far as America was concerned. Wabriski boasted to me that he had blown up several munitions plants and stores of explosives, including the Black Tom explosion in New York; blew up some ships and caused disastrous fires in the forests of the Pacific northwest."

"Wabriski was on his way to the United States by way of Nogales, Ariz., on another mission when captured by me. On his person was found a copy of the German imperial code that came into the possession of the American government. Wabriski was court martialed and from the fact that his case is before the president for review is believed to have been sentenced to death, the only German spy to receive such a sentence in the United States."

"I also betrayed 58 other German agents and thus enabled the military intelligence department to keep effective watch on them, not to mention some renegade Americans, who were giving aid and comfort to the enemy."

Discovered Stations.
Other acts for which Dr. Altendorf claims credit include: Discovery of two German wireless stations in Mexico capable of receiving messages from that country; reporting the plan for the German submarine raid along the American coast in April, 1918, one month before it actually took place; reporting agents sent by Germans in Mexico to poison cattle in the United States, and the revelation of a plot by four Germans to blow up the hydro-electric plant at Niagara Falls.

Calling attention to German commercial plans in Mexico, Dr. Altendorf reports that "the first attempt to carry out an ambitious German scheme for the economic conquest and ultimate military domination of Mexico was a plan originated by the German consul, Rademacher at Guaymas, with the active aid of Governor Calles, to build a cement plant with a capacity of 90,000 bags a month, at Hermosillo, Sonora."

"The foundations were completed and materials for the superstructure were on the ground in July, 1917, when I reported the scheme in time to stop it and the factory had to be abandoned until after the peace treaty had been signed. This factory was to furnish the cement for rebuilding piers and other structures and building new ones on the west coast.

Not Neutral.
"The American people ought to know," he continues, "that Mexico was not neutral during the war, but an enemy, active to the extent of its limited capacity. Mexico gave no fewer than 80 German officers commissions in the Mexican army and assigned them to train troops for service against the United States. German uniforms were so common in Mexico that even the local Mexican papers complained about it. Moreover, Carranza's direct orders, Mexican telegraph wires were thrown open to German code messages. I personally carried orders from Carranza to Governor Calles to permit the spy, Wabriski, to send code messages freely."

Prominent Mexican officials are alleged by Dr. Altendorf to have been on the payroll of the German embassy, he says:

"Mario Mendez, director of telegraphs, received a salary of $600 a month from von Eckhardt. His brother who held a position in the postoffice, also received $600 a month for opening and reading private letters and passing the information along to the Germans."

Dr. Altendorf states that he personally, late in November, 1917, carried a request from Governor Calles of Sonora to Rademacher, the German consul at Guaymas, for $150,000, saw the money put in a bag, and carried the bag, accompanied by Rademacher, to Calles.

Continuing, the statement says: "I was unable to discover that von Eckhardt has guaranteed to Carranza an abundance of capital to turn Mexico into an industrial country. In fact, von Eckhardt went to Germany last April for the express purpose of financing German corporations and perfecting other arrangements for building great chemical plants, textile factories, tanneries and all other industries necessary to make Mexico independent of the United States and Europe."

"As soon as the peace is ratified there will be a heira of a quarter of a million Germans from the United States, who will take with them to Mexico $400,000,000 capital. There are already 150,000 Germans in Mexico and German immigration on a large scale will soon turn the country into German colony."

"The activity of Carranza in harrying Americans out and confiscating their property is explained by the fact that Germans with plenty of money stand ready to pick up the property at bargain rates."

"The full significance of all this becomes apparent when I tell you further that part of the German scheme provides for great munitions plants at Mexico City which will make it unnecessary for Mexico to import war materials in the future. The treaty of peace restricts the manufacture of munitions of war in Germany, but doesn't say anything about Germans manufacturing as large quantities as they please in Mexico. Thus there is no practical difficulty in the way of Germany's plans for the next war."

"German agents are active everywhere in Latin-America, and the newspapers have told there is to be extensive German immigration to that part of the world in the near future. The result of the war did not end the Germans' dream of world conquest; it merely delayed it."

Such officers shall also act as counters.

WITNESS my hand as Mayor of said City affixed in said city, this 20th day of August, A. D. 1919. (seal) GARY KITCHENS, Mayor and Chairman, Board of Commissioners.

Attest: W. B. Jones, Clerk, Board of Commissioners. 8-21-10t

To The Churches of Ada

There are quite a few children in different portions of the City of Ada, and especially among the people around the out-skirts, who would attend some of the several Sunday Schools of the City had they what they consider proper clothing to wear. Nazarene Church yesterday donated about fifty dollars, ($50.00) to the cause of preparing these children so that they may attend some Sunday School. This is in truth and in deed the work of the Christian. There is no better method of preaching the gospel. This is an appeal to the churches and church-people of Ada to assist in this good cause.

GINNING PRICES TO BE DETERMINED LATER

By News' Special Service
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 23.—After a hearing that consumed two entire days and ran the entire gamut of the business of cotton ginning and production, the state corporation commission, late yesterday afternoon, concluded its inquiry held for the purpose of arriving at a decision as to the price for ginning in 1919. The commissioners will review the testimony submitted and give their decision at an early date. Cotton has been ginned upon a "seed basis," with a charge of thirty-five cents per hundred pounds. The growers claim that this is not a fair method and ask that the charge be fixed upon the "lint basis." On the seed basis the producers pay by the hundred for the gross weight of cotton received at the gin and on the lint basis would pay by the hundred for the net weight in lint delivered back to him by the ginner. Last year the price on the seed basis was thirty-five cents a hundred and the ginner indicates that they must have fifty this year. They have submitted a price of $1.19 a hundred on the lint basis, which figures out almost the same on a load of 1,700 pounds gross, one of the examples used. In the gross weight there is, after the cotton is ginned and the lint returned with the seed to the grower with the seed to the grower, a shrinkage of about 200 pounds the "invisible loss" frequently referred to, which the producer claims he should not pay for and which the ginner claims he should be paid for, because he has eliminated the dirt from the seed and lint.

During yesterday's hearing the matter of the Dale Gin Co., which sought to abandon operation this year, was disposed of and the decision in that case applies to the industry throughout the state. The commission held that the law gives its jurisdiction over the operation of gins and that no gin company can abandon operation without first having made a showing before the commission that the operation would be unprofitable or that the crop in that particular section of the state would not warrant operation. This, the commission recited the decision being announced by Commissioner R. N. Echols, applies to all gins that have been operated during the last four years, the period during which they have been under the commission's jurisdiction. However, in the event that there is unanimous consent of growers and gin owners at any particular place that the operation of a gin is not necessary or will be unprofitable the commission, upon a showing to that effect, will consent to its abandonment.

STREET CAR STRIKE AT MUSKOGEE LOST

By News' Special Service
MUSKOGEE, Okla., Aug. 23.—The backbone of the street car strike in Muskogee is broken. Following the withdrawal of support by the Central Labor Union and the four railroad brotherhoods from the Carmen's Union, cars were operated today with only a few guards. The unions withdrew their support because the carmen would not go to work after the traction company made concessions that made their contract a fair one. Members of the building trades council who went out this morning may return to work Monday. It is said the situation is being agitated by men who have invested in motor busses and who want the cars kept idle so that jitneys may be operated. No arrests were made today. One thousand members of the citizens committee who were sworn in as special officers, will retain their commissions until the strike is finally settled.

Don't let that room stay vacant when a News Want Ad will rent it.

OKFUSKEE CITIZEN GETS DEATH THREATS

By News' Special Service
OKEMAH, Aug. 25.—J. A. Dunagan of Okemah has just received two written notices warning him to leave Okfuskee County at once on pain of death. Both notices were printed with a lead pencil on pieces of newspaper and were well written and punctuated. One of the notices was found by Mr. Dunagan on a chair at the Main Hotel where he has rooms. The other was in a bottle and was found near the hotel by a child. One side was printed in the form of a bank check and read: "Pay to J. A. Dunagan by September 1, Death (for) the yellow dog you are, Bar X Committee." On the other side was printed: "J. A. Dunagan: This is your death warrant. You will be shot from the back like you fight. You are just one of the few dogs that the Bar X Committee is going to get. Send your detective home, we would hate to kill a man. (Pres.) X. C."

Two weeks ago a shot was fired through the hotel window at Mr. Dunagan as he was undressing to go to bed. Dunagan is one of the best known citizens of Okfuskee County.

TRAPP ISSUES LABOR DAY PROCLAMATION

State of Oklahoma, Executive Department.
Labor Day Proclamation.
 Among the many holidays designated by law and public custom annually in our beloved country, there is none whose observance and whose ceremonies should appeal more strongly to the pride and patriotic consciousness of every true American than the day which has been set apart to celebrate the accomplishments, the value and importance of labor in the progress and advancement of the human race. Intelligent labor is the foundation on which the civilization, the health, the happiness, the prosperity and the future welfare of the human family has been established and must continue to depend, and it is but meet and proper that in a nation of workers a day should be set apart for the proper acknowledgement of the obligation and respect which is the due of all who toil. We stand in the shadow of an industrial upheaval that threatens to halt our progress, retard development, cripple industry, dissipate prosperity, arouse class hatred and seriously menace the welfare and happiness of all our people. Let us hope that out of the deliberations and observances of this day, set apart to do honor to labor, will arise the spirit and the inspiration in the hearts and minds of employers and employees in all the industries at war, to compromise their differences through mutual concessions and save themselves, their families and the millions who without offense or fault must suffer hardships and privations as the result of their further failure to agree.

In this spirit and in view of the conditions that surround us, and with a sincere, and abiding respect for the great cause of labor, I, therefore, in performance of the duty imposed upon me by law, respectfully declare and proclaim Monday, the first day of September, 1919, a public holiday and recommend that the people as far as possible, on that day cease from labor and that fitting exercises be held in its commemoration throughout the state. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state of Oklahoma, at Oklahoma City, this 22nd day of August, in the year of our Lord, 1919, and of the independence of the United States the 143rd. (Signed) M. E. TRAPP, The acting governor of the state of Oklahoma. Attest: (Signed) JOE S. MORRIS, Secretary of State.

College Profs. Announced.

By News' Special Service
 Final preparations for opening of Oklahoma City college Sept. 15, were completed by college officers Friday with the announcement of 15 faculty members. Enrollment probably will reach more than 200, the biggest attendance the college has ever had. E. G. Green, president, said. Instructors in chemistry and physics and biology and geology have not been announced. Green said those would be secured within the next few days. An athletic director and coach will be hired before the opening of school. Following are the faculty members: E. G. Green, president; Willard A. Goodell, psychology and education; Alice C. Conkling, mathematics; Leslie A. Merrill, modern languages; Paul R. Stevick, Biblical literature; Mary E. Harris, education; Avis Baker, English; Merle L. Sandefur, history, economics and sociology; Bitha H. Pittinger, history; Clara M. Hoyt, voice; Fay E. Trumbull, piano; Bertha G. McBride, librarian; Willard Hyler, secretary and Raymond E. Young, assistant chemistry.

Additional faculty members probably will be secured to give special courses for late hour business men and women's classes.

WE had a complaint today in regard to charging 20c for 25 pounds of ice; if this has been done it was a mistake on the part of the driver, as we do not want you to pay more than our schedule rate. Twenty-five pounds of ice at 70 cents per 100 pounds would be 17½ cents, and the driver could probably not make change for this amount. The driver should give you about thirty pounds for 20 cents. Let me suggest, therefore, coupons would be considerably cheaper, that coupons be used—this would make 25 pounds of ice cost you 16 2-3 cents. We have delivered written instructions to our drivers to discontinue this practice and to give back even change, as near as possible, where 25 pounds of ice is necessary.

A Message About ADVERTISING

FROM THE

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

If you are not advertising, then advertise, because it saves money for you and it reduces the price to the consumer.

Advertising prevents profiteering. It insures honest profits and makes them permanent.

The message of the U. S. Department of Labor to merchants and manufacturers and to all progressive American business men is to advertise.

Tell the public about YOUR goods. The consumer has plenty of money. He is willing to spend it and we want him to spend it on American-made products. The easiest, quickest, and most economical way in which this can be accomplished is by advertising.

Start your campaign right now.

PRODUCTION IS A MORAL ISSUE

"HIGH COST OF LIVING NECES-SARY REACTION TO GRASP-ING ATTITUDE WE TAKE TOWARD LIFE."

Following is reproduced by permission from "Babson's Reports," Wellesley Hills, Mass., August 19, 1919:

It is very wrong to attempt to blame the merchants and storekeepers for the increased costs of living. It is doubly wrong, first, because it is unfair to these people, and second, because the publicity connected therewith directs the people's attention away from the real cause and the real cure. It likewise is wrong to blame high prices onto high wages or vice-versa. Both are relative and always will be. When expressed in dollars neither prices nor wages mean anything. It does us no good to get $10 a day and work only six hours a day if this means that bread will be $1 a loaf. A discussion of either wages or prices alone is like arguing which existed first, a hen or an egg! We have fooled ourselves long enough by putting our thumb on the thermometer bulb. It is time that we went down cellar and put some coal in the furnace. The increased cost of living can be reduced only by increasing production or decreasing consumption, or by both. When production exceeds consumption, the cost of living declines; but when consumption exceeds production, the cost of living increases.

Usually, the cost of living is reduced through the latter method, namely, by reducing consumption.
This comes about by prices getting so high that the people curtail their buying to a point which makes prices decline. When prices begin to decline they fall further than is needed, because people get panic-stricken and refuse to buy on a falling market, even for their legiti-mate needs. Hence, in accordance with the law of equal and opposite reaction, prices on a declining market fall as far below their normal during boom days. This is why the cost of living declines during a business depression even though production falls off and unemployment is common.

The ideal way to reduce the cost of living is by increasing production! Reductions in the cost of living which come through reductions in consumption are only temporary.
As soon as business picks up and people again become employed, the cost of living again begins to climb and we are worse off than before.

This explains why all the commissions and other attempts to reduce the cost of living during the past decades have failed. The high cost of living is a necessary reaction to the grasping attitude which 95 percent of us take toward life. We are taught to get all we can and give as little as we can.

As long as only comparatively few families had this grasping nature, things went on very well. In our fathers' days enough people had the right point of view toward life to keep the rest fed, housed and clothed on a decent basis. We are like a party in a rowboat. As long as all row, we get along finely.
One, even, may loaf and still we make progress. Now, however, almost everyone is slacking on his oars, and the boat is stopping. We can get on with a few robbers.
The country will stand a certain amount of burglary and still prosper;
but when all turn burglars, production falls off and prices shoot up. That is what we are up against now. Hence, I say, the cost of living can be reduced only by a nation-wide revival which will change men's hearts!

The cost of living is more of a religious question than an economic one. Its solution awaits a religious revival rather than the passage of more legislation or the adoption of a new industrial order such as the Socialists, the Bolsheviks, or the
I. W. W.'s demand. Until the hearts of men are changed, we should be no better off under Socialism than at present; with the hearts of men right, we can get on well under any system. Hence, I again say, we should quit fooling with the thermometer either by changing the scale or by putting our thumb to the bulb. We should go down the cellar and put on more fuel on the furnace. This means go out into the forests and cut more wood, mine more coal and produce more of everything.

How can we increase production?
First, let me say there can be no such thing as too much production, or overproduction, provided all is properly distributed and labor is properly proportioned among the different industries. There could be an overproduction of pepper, or even of sugar; but it will be many many years before there could be an overproduction of foodstuffs in general; while I can not imagine a time when there could be an over-production of good homes and comforts. We need not fear overproduction. What we must fear is that too many people will loaf on their own jobs, and consequently will not be able to buy their share of good things. In other words, the problem is to get everybody to producing something useful. We can't do this by merely stating economic facts. We must make it a moral issue!

The abolition of slavery was never accomplished by an argument of

PURCELL SLUGGERS MEET WATERLOO

CRACK TEAM OF THE SANTA FE MET THEIR MATCH IN ADA YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

The Purcell sluggers arrived in Ada on time yesterday and met the Tigers on the local diamond at 3:30 in the afternoon.

The game started off with a vim but began to lag when it was discovered that Ada was destined to walk away with the bacon.

At the end of the first half of the ninth inning the score stood nine to four in favor of Ada and the visitors laid down their sticks and beat it for town.

It is said that the Purcell team had not been beaten this season, but the drubbing they got yesterday will stare them in the face for some time. Following is the lineup with the results:

THIS FELLOW WAS QUALIFIED FOR JOB

By the Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug.
24.—It is seldom that an applicant for a position gives more than one or two of his qualifications, says
O. L. Hudson of the federal employment bureau in this city. But Mr. Hudson thinks a young man not yet out of school who has written him a letter has some chance as a record-maker.

Here is some of the things the young man enumerates, according to Hudson:

"I was assistant to county assessor, assessing personal property, doing general office work; taught one term of school; sold oil stock; have operated telephone switchboard; took a course in bookkeeping, sten-ographic branch of enlisted personnel from high school; was in civil service at Washington; did general clerical work; had charge of stenographic branch of enlisted personnel section, ordinance department; resigned to enter military service; served in signal corps; qualified as wireless operator; assisted in law office; I have also done various kinds of heavy work, which in the main would consist in gathering crops, harvesting, threshing, pulling broom corn and similar farm work; have worked in oil fields, on pipe lines and building tanks, have painted and done carpentering. I have done most kinds of manual labor."

Teacher Training Class

The teacher training class which meets at the First Christian church every Monday evening is having a healthy growth. Last Monday evening there were three new members. A week before that there were also three. There is good prospect of more this evening. Membership in this class is open to all.
There is no cost connected with it except the cost of the books. A person can become a member at any time. This evening the class will study the life of Paul. The class begins at 7:30 and lasts one hour.

economies, but when the majority slavery was wrong, it was abolple were made to feel that drinking was wrong and were ashamed to be seen in a saloon, we got prohibi-
